THE TICKET.

YESTERDAY afternoon the Fusion conventions came to a close after one of the most exciting contests in the history of Nevada. Representative men of the State were in attendance, and it was solely by their good judgment that the ticket was nominated without any serious friction. When it is considered that twenty-eight men constituted the conference committee and they came to a conclusion that resulted in the placing of a strong ticket in the field, there is every reason to congratulate them on the good work.

The fact that a number of leaders of the Republican faction were on hand and took an active part in the conventions, principally with the idea of breeding trouble and discord in the hot contests, shows that the opposition fears the power of the ticket nominated. It has been the prediction of a number of the leading Republicans, that the two conventions would result in two tickets, and now that one harmonious ticket has been nominated, will give them a chance to figure that the strength of the party has been doubled.

While the fights were bitter in the extreme, and the men in the field were working night and day for the places on the ticket, yet in spite of all of this contention, they have finished the work, and all parties should now pull for the election of the ticket from top to bottom.

Many of the members of the party now in power believe that the election of the ticket is assured. While there is every reason to believe that the ticket will meet a victory at the hands of the people, yet the fight will prove one of the bitterest in the history of the State.

The Republicans have perfected their organization and will place a carefully selected ticket in the field. If there is any discord in the ranks of the Fusionists, there will be a serious loss to the party, which will place the weapon in the hands of the enemy that it desires. Discord is the one instrument that they desire, and every power will be used to breed it. The Fusionists will have to fight every inch of the ground and it must be a campaign of vigor and talent to win. With perfect harmony in the ranks, there is no reason why the ticket cannot be a winner from top to bottom.

MAINE DEMOCRATS AWAKE.

THE Democrats in so strong a Republican State as Maine have plucked up courage, and will enter upon a vigorous campaign before the general election, which is held in that State on September 8. In addition to State officers, four Representatives in Congress are to be chosen, and the Democrats have hopes of capturing one seat. But whether they succeed or fail, their determination to make a serious contest is commendable. No party can be long trusted with uncontested lease of power with advantage to the country or to a State or any other political division. No majority party will remain efficient, honest and responsive to the people's will if no penalty is provided for dereliction of duty. "He that wrestles with us," said Burke, "strengthens our nerves and sharpens our skill; our antagonist is our helper." In politics this is a truth which every Pennsylvanian, noting the abuses due to lack of a strong minority, must recognize. Trusts and tariff revision are to be the issues in Maine, and if the Republican majorities are reduced in September the Republican managers will have food for thought.—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE trusts' bargain counter is in Europe, where foreigners get the sole benefit of "cut prices." Monopoly prices are reserved for American consumers. They spell Prosperity for trusts. This policy is defenced by Representative Babcock, Chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, whose zeal to reduce duties on trust-made articles suddenly disappeared when he had secured an abatement of the internal revenue taxes paid by his constituents, the rich Milwaukee brewers.

REPUBLICANS insist that the money question is settled, and yet, whenever a Democratic gathering fails to lend active endorsement to the Chicago and Kansas City platforms they rejoice in columns. Actions tell.
